

Teachers write poetry for NPSC e -book

The teachers of the English Department unleashed their poetic muse by penning their thoughts and emotions on a variety of themes in the form of a Haiku for the NPSC publication at the Annual Conference this year. The e-book of the Haiku poem collection written by teachers was released at the Conference. Haiku is a Japanese genre of three lines consisting of seventeen syllables.

The following teachers wrote Haikus which were published

Ms Bindia Rajpal

Ms Tanim Sarkar Chakravarti

Ms Megha Walia
