Renaissance Expressing Innovations....

Inter School events play a role in motivating students to perform, excel and offer a lot more reward than just winning a prize. Competitions offer a chance to participants to gain substantial experience, showcase skills, analyse and evaluate outcomes and uncover personal aptitude. Competitions also encourage students to adopt innovative techniques and develop their ideas and skills.

Season four of Renaissance Expressing Innovation was held at Vivekanand Public School B Block Anand Vihar on 22nd and 23rd October 2018. The two-day annual fiesta was conducted with high fervour with the active participation of staff and students alike. This fest saw the amalgamation of Delhi NCR Schools where students showcased their inherent qualities and talent in the field of art and craft, IT sector, Politics etc. It is the sincere endeavor of each participating School to put their best foot forward.

This year also the events started with the lighting of the lamp. More than thirty-five schools of Delhi NCR participated in over forty events under various categories. The school Management Members Sh.K. L. Bhatia, Mr. Sunil Khanna and the school Principal Ms. Ashima Jhamb applauded and appreciated the sincere efforts of the staff and students for making the program a huge success.

VISIT TO OLD AGE HOME

The members of Interact Club of Vivekanand Public School visited Oldage home called 'Shashiraj Foundation' in Shreshtha Vihar. It was an emotional journey of the students as well as teachers because what they saw there was unbelievable and unbearable for all of them. Many of them were left there by their own kids who not even bothered to meet them once. Our students had a healthy talk with them, distributed gifts and food items. Few of them sang songs and shared their memories with the students. they all wished them Happy Diwali and returned back with a hope that someday they may also get true happiness by being with their family which is difficult but not impossible.

Nukkad Natak on Consumer Awareness

The E-Com club today presented a Nukkad Natak on consumer awareness enacted by the students of class XI under the guidance and leadership of commerce faculty.

The street play presented the consumer protection Act formed in 1986 and important rights like 'Right to Information ' and 'Right to Safety'. The students beautifully portrayed the Role of shopkeepers who cheat their consumers due to their ignorance and lack of awareness about consumer Rights.

Our Repected Principal Mam, Headmistress Mam and Incharges graced this event by their esteemed presence and appreciated the event by blessing the students and praising their sincere efforts she motivated them to come up with such ideas in future also.

It was indeed an opportunity for the students to take their talent and knowledge to any elevated platform by performing in such kind of innovative ways of learning for life long.

Jhankaar & Artistry Club

With the aim to promote Indian Classical Music and the priceless drawing by our young artists the students of Jhankaar Group and Artistry club organised a combined activity where the students of class VI to XI presented drawing on rhythmic notes of the song Kajari, the Folk Song of Bihar. It was a mesmerizing and enlightening experience for the audience who watched this unique combination with keen interest. Another spectacular performance was a classical composition Raag Kafi by Sanyam Panchal of class IX on harmonium dependent on western beat on Congo by Paras Soni of class VI.

The performance showed how a traditional music and western music can be moulded to create contemporary music. The solo singing performance by Mink Rawat of class 11th added the feather to the program. The audience was spellbound by her melodious voice and the guitar was played by Vishul Meher of class VIII. The program was appreciated and enjoyed by all present there.
