

School Buzz

WEDNESDAY, 28 FEBRUARY, 2018

The atmosphere was filled with vibrancy when the students of J M International School, Dwarka, shouted slogans like 'Push the paddle, to save the planet', 'Let's take a step towards healthy and pollution free Delhi.' The school as a part of Bharat Positive, a social initiative organised Cyclathon:

J M International School, Dwarka

A road safety campaign to create awareness among the commuters about varied issues including road safety, pollution, fuel economy and health benefits. The students presented a dance mob show at Dwarka Sector 1, Zebra Crossing and tied Safety Bands with a message 'I Promise Road Safety. I'm Bharat Positive', on the wrists of the commuters. so that the message reaches out to more and more people. The initiative was cheered by everyone including commuters, teachers and parents. A teacher expressed her joy and shared, 'We do not ride bicycles these days but after this initiative we would all be motivated.'
