Report:-

The special assembly was held on 31st August, 2018 to celebrate Janmashtami. The event was organized by classes 11-C and 2-D. Students of both senior and junior wing participated in many cultural events and were very excited to perform in front of the school.

A musical rendition was performed by the MBSians to commemorate the birth of Lord Krishna. The performance was followed by a dance performance by class II - D . The students were filled with zest and excitement to witness the Nukkad Natak based on the theme of “ Beti Bachao, Beti padhao.”

Lovisha Jain sang a melodious song “Yashomati Maiya” which was followed by another dance performance . The students danced very elegantly. After the cultural events, Prize distribution ceremony took place. Students were felicitated by certificates and trophies for the competition “Mat-A- Magic” and “Jewellery Design” .
