Keeping the flame of knowledge brighten and updated with the time, the school had the morning assembly online. This week students of class X-B showed their zeal and hosted the morning assembly on the theme 'Introspection is the key to success'. The students participated in the morning assembly with high spirits and prayed to all mighty to end the bad times because of corona. Students took the national pledge and presented the thought of the day 'Believe yourself because no one can know better than you'. Also, students read the important news to keep everyone updated with the current happenings in and around the world. Then students kept their thoughts on the theme through speeches, storytelling, and poems. At last, the students sang the national anthem with pride and joy!
