Morning assembly undoubtedly is an integral part of school curriculum. It aids community participation and also strives to hone the skills of children and instills healthy competitive spirit.

The students of class XI C conducted their Class Assembly on 26 October 2021 on the topic 'Children are the hands that lead to heaven'.

The assembly commenced with the Gayatri Mantra as it permeated a sense of peace and serenity in the mind, body and soul of the assembly participants. This was followed by the Pledge, thought of the day, and news headlines. The students presented a speech reiterating that 'Children are the future of the world. They will be the leaders of tomorrow and are going to make choices that will directly affect the current generation'. A mesmerizing dance performance that ensued portrayed their responsibility towards a better future. It was absolutely delightful to watch all of them taking tiny but significant steps that influenced everyone strongly. Really impelling!

The School Vice Principal addressed the gathering with a hope that from now onwards students will uphold their duties towards the nation and towards a better future. The assembly culminated with the rendition of the National Anthem.
