Glimpse of the Morning Assembly

What the mind of man can conceive and believe, the mind of a man can achieve.

The morning assembly is a platform where student can showcase and polish their hidden talents and abilities. It ignites the flame of knowledge, creativity and responsibility within each and every student. It also top the undiscovered potential that student exhibit. This week students of IX-C hosted the morning assembly on the theme 'Discipline and Focus' with all zeal, zest and enthusiasm. The students devotedly performed Gayatri Mantra and prayed to the Almighty. The event compering was done by Manuja Vats and Bhavya Garg. Naman Makkar performed the national pledge and Yuvika Gill presented the thought of the day. The news headlines were read by Dia Gautam, Prabhjot Parth Upadhyay and Japleen Khanna to instil a sense of responsibility and to make them aware of happenings around Aashi Mittal and Parth Yadav performed poems while Diksha Bahuguna enlightened the students with her impactful speech. Keshav Yadav presented some facts about the eminent personalities who are in successful in their lives due to deep focus and discipline to motivate the students. Theme based elocution was organised and the winners were given prizes respectively Vice Principal Ma'am addressed the morning assembly and guided student to excel. The board decoration was done by Manya, Havisha and Poorer and overall powerpoint presentation was prepared by Vibhuti Kumar Jha. At last, the student sang the national anthem to celebrate their nation's glory.
