"The price of greatness comes with responsibilities. We are made wise not by the recollection of our past, but by the responsibility for our future."

Rendering its services towards the nation and the individual, MBS International School conducted a workshop for the faculty members woven around the topic 'Fundamental Duties: Make India a better place to live'. The workshop was helmed by Mr.Rahul Budhraja, who is a practising advocate in Delhi High Court and District Courts in Criminal and Family Law. About 20 interns practising law also attended the workshop. Mr.Rahul Budhraja asserted the importance of abiding by the duties assigned to us by the Constitution of India. He outlined the duties to be followed by every citizen of India. It is crucial that everyone is made aware about the fundamental duties and rights so that every individual can contribute towards the nation's progress. Solutions for various issues pertaining in and around an individual were dealt in the workshop. Some tips and techniques to impart joyful learning and taking care of oneself were also discussed in the workshop which concluded with the hope that we will celebrate the progress of our nation and work for it in an effective manner.
