‘It is reasons and not passions, which must guide our deliberations, debate, and decisions.’

The Inter House Debate Competition organized by Teresa House for students of Classes X-XII, on October 21, 2022 was an excellent platform for language learning because it engaged debaters in a cognitive and linguistic way to develop argumentation skills for a persuasive speech. Students from four houses competed in a debate to share their views on the topic-‘Are newsrooms breaking rules to give breaking news?’ They brought out their hidden aptitude, while presenting rebuttal arguments in a convincing way. The Vice Principal, who adjudged the competition appreciated the participants.

The winners are:-
