

St. Mary's School Dwarka
Holiday Homework
Class XI
Subject: Geography

Worksheet 1

Answer the following questions in 30 – 40 words

1x10=10

- Q1 What are Karewas?
- Q2 Name the place from where river Ganga enters the plain area.
- Q3 What is a river regime?
- Q4 Which state has the longest coastline?
- Q5 What is a sub-continent? Why is India called a sub-continent?
- Q6 Where is the Malda Faultline?
- Q7 Where is the valley of flowers?
- Q8 Where is 'Bughyals'?
- Q9 Name the headstreams of rivers Ganga.
- Q10 Name two tributaries of river Indus in Jammu and Kashmir.

Worksheet 2

Answer the following questions in 80 – 100 words

3x9=27

- Q1 Distinguish between Western coastal plain and the Eastern coastal plain.
- Q2 Do you think that India's peninsular location is beneficial to the country?
- Q3 Explain the term a) Patland plateau, b) antecedent river, c) standard meridian
- Q4 Describe the salient features of the central highland.
- Q5 Which river is called Tsangpo in Tibet? Describe its river system.
- Q 6 Give an account of geological division of India.
- Q7 What are the important characteristic of the north Indian rivers? How are these different from the peninsular rivers?
- Q8 What is the extent of the northern plain? Explain the different types of landforms found in the plains.
- Q9 Distinguish between antecedent and consequent river.

Worksheet 3

Answer the following questions in 150 – 160 words. Question number 8 is related to map skill, to be marked on the political outline map of India.

6x8=48

- Q1 What is the coordinate extent of India? What is the implication of the vast latitudinal extent of India?
- Q2 Give a detail account on the drainage system of the Indian rivers.
- Q3 Do you think that 'climate change is natural and continuous process and the earth has witnessed many changes since the beginning' justify the statement.
- Q4 Classify the Himalayas based on relief and alignment of the ranges and write the characteristics of Himalayas lying to the extreme north west.
- Q5 Give a detail account of erosional and depositional features formed by the masses of moving ice.
- Q6 Discuss the climatic classification by V. Koeppen.
- Q7 Explain nature of Indian monsoon
- Q8 Locate and label the following features with appropriate symbol in the given political map of India:-
- 1) The northern division of eastern coastal plain.
 - 2) Mark the state sharing international boundary with three countries.
 - 3) Highest peak of southern India.
 - 4) The river known as Dakshin Ganga.
 - 5) A river flowing through the trough to drain in Arabian Sea.
 - 6) Second highest peak of western ghat.