

REPORT ON CONSTITUTION DAY

DATE : 26 NOVEMBER 2016

VENUE : ITL PUBLIC SCHOOL

PARTICIPANTS : STUDENTS OF CLASSES I-XII

In an endeavour to reiterate the values enshrined in the supreme law of our country, that is, the Constitution of India, ITL PUBLIC SCHOOL celebrated CONSTITUTION DAY on 26th November, 2016. To mark this event, a mass reading of the Preamble was done and the contributions of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the chief architect of Indian constitution were highlighted. The student pledged to uphold the constitution of India and to protect the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India.

Several activities like Quiz, Debate and Essay Writing were conducted for all the classes. The highlight of the program was an attempt by the students of classes IX-X to 'Draft a Constitution for ITL Public School'. The activities attempted to showcase the creative skills and display their speaking prowess. The activities essayed to explore the opinion of the students on how to fulfill the objectives enshrined in our constitution and live the dreams of the great visionaries who drafted our constitution.

The teacher in charges guided the students and assisted them in displaying their thoughts and smooth functioning of the activities. It was indeed a great learning experience for both the staff members and students as it gave an opportunity to create awareness about the duties of students as citizens of India.
