

Inter-School Commerce Event - The Biz Eximius 2k15

"The function of education is to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character are the goals of true education. " ~Martin Luther king Jr.

Abiding by the motto of the Commerce Club- Think, Change, Impact, ITL organised an Inter-School Commerce Event - The Biz Eximius 2k15 on 4th August 2015. Comprising of interactive and challenging trial of a students, knack for excellence in the field of commerce, the event saw various school's enthusiastic involvement in the Stock Challenge, Real Estate Challenge and the Biz Quiz. Mr. B.K. Lamba, the honourable chief guest for the day inspired the young minds by sharing with them his wisdom, experience and vision. The day was also marked with zestful and vibrant cultural program including dance and songs performed by the Itleens. Rahul Singh, Commerce Club President shared his views on the vision of the club, it's motto, it's dynamic and multitude activities to promote commerce and incorporate them in the real world. The day ended with the prize distribution where the winners of various events were felicitated. DPS Vasant Kunj was the proud and worthy winner of the Rolling Trophy.

The day was indeed a reflection of the thoughts of Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam who believed that thinking with action could convert adversity into prosperity.

