

ITL CELEBRATES THE MAGNA OPUS ANNUAL DAY....

“Shaasan Akhand Bharat Ka..... Neetiyon Se Nirmaan Tak”

ITL Public School, Sector-9, Dwarka put up a splendid show to mark its Annual Day “Shaasan Akhand bharat Ka....Neetiyon Se Nirmaan Tak” a soulful chronicle on Chanakya, the name that gloriously shines in the History of India, the towering personality, the advisor And Prime Minister of Chandragupta Maurya of Delhi, whose wisdom, policies and stratagem is transcendental and relevant in all ages .

Mrs Rekha Gupta, Honourable Member, National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The show commenced with ‘THE DASHAVATAR- the invocation dance’ to raise the energies of the ten avatars and witness the story of the great preserver, Lord Vishnu. The School Principal Ms.Sudha Acharya formally welcomed the august gathering and enlightened them about the school’s efforts in passionate and tireless nurturing of the students and the various milestones achieved henceforth.

The Annual report of the School offered a glimpse of the school’s triumphant journey on the path of meaningful education. Keeping the fire of inquisitiveness rising high the School Magazine ‘Jigyasa’ was released by the Chief Guest , followed by the launch of the e- magazine – Vigyanavartan Following closely was the prize distribution which felicitated its outstanding achievers in scholastic and co scholastic areas.

The main highlight of the show was the musical- “Shaasan Akhand bharat Ka....Neetiyon se Nirmaan Tak, directed and choreographed by Mr.Gaurav Pahwa . With the alternating flow of powerful dialogue delivery, dances and songs by the live band, the play took the audience on a journey into the magnificence of the Mauryan Empire with Chanakya as the stalwart statesman , a kingmaker who consolidated the Mauryan Empire and laid strategies for good governance for modern India ,even after half millennia later. It spectacularly showcased the highly effective neeti of Chanakya, who has left such a mammoth impact on the modern times economy. His practical maxims still fit into these techno-savvy times of today, the age of glitz and glamour.

The Chief Guest and other guests applauded the dauntless efforts of the students and teachers for their exceptional concept and flawless execution of the programme. They appreciated the vision and guiding light provided by the Management. They congratulated the Principal Ms.Sudha Acharya for able leadership under which the school is progressing by leaps and bounds and progressively contributing towards the positive changes in the society.

