It is a matter of pride that students of ITL Public School got an opportunity to attend a Business summit - BII 2018 at IIT Delhi , along with students of other schools and colleges. This summit saw a plethora of diverse industrial skills ,wherein great revolutionary and technical minds gathered to give a sneak peek of emerging trends of future. The list of eminent personalities included Ms Meenakshi Lekhi (Hon'ble MP Lok sabha), Mr Kulmeet Bawa (MD ,India and South Asia, Adobe), Mr Visvesh Prabhakar (MD , Accenture), Ms Shahnaz Hussain, Ms Mallika Sarabhai, Mr Joypratip Sengupta (VP consumer sales and marketing, Vodafone India), Ms Marya Shakil (Political editor and Senior anchor, CNN IBN), Mr Vishal Chadha (AVP HCL technologies), Ms Medha Patkar(India Social Activist) and Mr Prabhu Chawla (Editorial director, New Indian Express and anchor of Seedhi Baat) and the esteemed faculty of IIT Delhi. The sessions focused on nation building, effective resource management, making right choices, importance of healthy mind and body, impact of social media on different sectors, impact of GST on today's life etc.

It was a learning experience for our students, as they understood the importance of managing the existing resources and the need for all sectors to go hand in hand for Building India. Altogether it was a mind challenging and memorable event for our lives.
