

ITLEENS SHINE GLORIOUSLY IN I PARLIAMENT

Students of ITL PUBLIC SCHOOL participated confidently in the 6th session of I Parliament and was adjudged as the Best School Delegation. ITLeens wonderfully reflected their debating and policy drafting skills on the 'Aadhar Bill' and won several accolades for the same. The students got an enlightening opportunity to interact with Ms. Sonia Gandhi, who later graced the prize distribution ceremony.

Niyati Sharma won the award for Best Newsletter and Best Article. Sanya was awarded for 'Best Exemplar of Constitutional Values: Gender Justice'. Jyona Roy Biswas was awarded for 'Best Speech in Zero Hour'. Rudraaksha Sharma bagged the award for 'Best Shadow Minister' and Vedant Gupta was adjudged the 'Best Chief Whip'.

The event greatly enhanced the students' knowledge regarding parliamentary procedures and strategies and political negotiations. It also broadened their outlook on critical issues that affect the society at large. The event added glorious feathers to ITL's hamper of achievements.
