Conducted By : Students of Classes IV-XII
Attended By : Classes IV-XII

Students of ITL Public School celebrated the 73rd year of Indian Independence with patriotic fervor and enthusiasm reminiscing the glorious past of the country. The assembly commenced with the true meaning of freedom, equality and justice which were originally propagated through our ancient Indian texts and society as it rested on these valued principles. The students paid tribute to the efforts of our freedom fighters that helped us transcend all barriers so that we can open our eyes in an independent nation.

The assembly commenced with the unfurling of the national flag, followed by the invocation song 'Pushp Vandana'.

Students from an NGO, Choti si Khushi performed on melody of songs depicting the essence of India's diversity. They presented folk dances from different parts of the country. A notable dance performance on the Importance of Skill by students of Class IX-XI was much appreciated by all.

The Vice- Head Girl, session 2019-20 Falguni Mahajan, in her invigorating speech elucidated the concept that true freedom and independence being two different things, need two different addressals by the citizens.

Independence is harmless when granted but freedom comes with great responsibility.

The patriotic song 'Aao hum sab gaye mil k iss desh k tarane' made the heads rise in pride for the mother nation.

A rap song followed by Spandan, a ramp walk, by students of classes IV-V, dressed in the attires of the different states highlighted the true essence and cultural richness of India.

On this special day here's wishing our dreams of a new tomorrow come true! May your Independence Day be filled with patriotic spirit!"

Happy Independence Day..!!
