

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON WATER CRISIS, PUBLIC HEALTH & SUSTAINABLE SOLUTIONS (WCPHS)

Date October 21 and 22, 2019
Venue : Indian National Science Academy (INSA), New Delhi
Organised and Sponsored by: Save The Environment and DST

ITL Public School got a unique opportunity to attend the National Conference on Water Crisis, Public Health and Sustainable Solutions at INSA, New Delhi. The program was inaugurated by Chief Guest - Dr. Mahendra Singh, Cabinet Minister, Ministry of Jal Shakti, Govt. of Uttar Pradesh and Dr. Rajendra Singh, Indian Water Conservationist and Environmentalist, popularly known as Waterman of India.

The distinguished speakers from all over India as eminent Scientists, Professor and academicians shared the innovative ideas to conserve water.

Students of Classes XI and XII showcased various solutions to combat water scarcity through innovative models such as Aqua Abundance System, Krishi. Cal and Water Testing Using UAV were presented.

The conference brought researchers, industry personnel, government authorities and policy makers from all over India who are actively engaged in water conservation and discussed technological and sustainable solutions to overcome the existing water crisis.

ITLeens at Indian National Science Academy

Proud ITLeens with Trophies and Certificates

Students of ITL Presenting their ideas to the eminent personalities in the field of water conservation

Students are sharing of future innovative project ideas with Dr. Rajendra Singh, Waterman of India

Dr Vaishali Mishra (HOD Chemistry) conferred “STE Innovation Award, 2019” in recognition of her outstanding innovation in development of Eco-Friendly Organic Products.

Received Invited Speaker Memento

Felicitated Chairperson Memento by Chief Guest

Invited Speaker- Dr Vaishali Mishra, presenting her innovative ideas on Water Management in Agriculture Sector, “More Crop per Drop by Matka Irrigation”