

International Day for Disaster Risk Reduction

	 	SDG 11 Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 11 is about making “cities and human settlements inclusive, safe, resilient, and sustainable.” It is one of the 17 SDGs in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. Strengthen resilience and adaptive capacity to climate-related hazards and natural disasters in all countries Improve education, awareness-raising and human and institutional capacity on climate change mitigation, adaptation, impact reduction and early warning.
1.	Title of activity	International Day for Disaster Risk Reduction
2.	Class	III to XII
3.	Subjects involved	Social Science
4.	Facilitator	Members of Department of Social Science
5.	Brief description of the learning objectives, content of the activity and competencies acquired	“When we rebuild a house, we are rebuilding a home; When we recover from a disaster, we are rebuilding lives and livelihood.” The International Day for Disaster Risk Reduction is observed every year on 13 October and is an opportunity to acknowledge the progress that has been made towards preventing and reducing disaster risks and losses in terms of lives. In the year 2022, the day will focus on Sendai Framework: "Substantially increase the availability of, and access to multi hazard early warning system and disaster risk information and assessment to people by 2030." We ITLeens believe in providing a sustainable ecosystem and Management for Disaster Risk Reduction (DRR). We are committed to achieve substantial reduction of disaster risk of livelihood, health, economy and mental well-being of individuals and society as a whole. We aim to train students to be equipped and empowered adequately to combat effectively and confidently with such adverse situations during and after a disaster. We sincerely endeavour to make our students global citizens who will be strong enough to stride through challenges with a smiling face and emerge victorious. #disasterriskreduction #disastermanagement #drr #resilience <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Learning Objectives- ➤ Cognitive learning objectives- Learners will be able to understand about different natural and Human induced Disasters ➤ Socio-emotional objectives- Learners will be able to communicate with peer group regarding the importance of knowing different mitigation strategies that can be taken during or after a disaster.

		➤ Behavioral learning objectives- Learners will be able to apply different mitigation strategies in case of any disasters ➤ Brief description of the activity- To make the students Sensitized about Disaster Risk Reduction Strategies a mammoth of activities was taken up for the students for III to XII Students of classes III to V were made acquitted about different mitigation strategies through power point presentation. Students of VI and VII were very enthusiastically participated to make Emergency Disaster kit and Mind maps. Students of classes VIII to XII took hand on experience on Disaster risk reduction through various activities like Making of Brochures, Safety booklets, opening up of 'May I help you desk'. The most important part of the event was Mock drill for whole school and Safety walk taken up by the council Body members of the school. It was a great learning experience for the students and staff of the school. ➤ Competencies acquired- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Systems competency, normative competency, strategic competency, critical thinking competency, Integrative Problem-solving competency
6.	Time period of this activity	10 October to 13 October '22
7.	Evidences included	