

Address to teachers by Dr. Manju Nichani, Rector, Sadhu Vaswani

Dr. Manju Nichani, Rector, Sadhu Vaswani Institutes of Learning addressed the teachers of the school on 27th April, 2022. She shared some valuable lessons with the teachers that she learnt during the course of a four decade career in administration and education, and inspired the teachers to do an even better job at teaching than they already do. She emphasised on various facets of a successful teacher. She corrected teachers to not measure success on a scale of monetary rewards but in the way a teacher inspire students and help them be better versions of themselves constantly. She elaborated on how our revered Guru Dada J.P. Vaswani always saw teachers as the change makers of this world, and encouraged teachers to imbibe the value of empathy and humanity in themselves to fillip the level of each student they teach in their life. In addition to this, she motivated teachers to always push their limits and broaden their avenues in professional life so as to help students become global citizens. She invigorated the teachers to always be enthusiastic about any task they take up however menial it might be. She also motivated teachers to take any criticism they may face with a positive touch and never let it dampen one's spirit. She inspired the teachers to inculcate the motto of 'NEVER MIND' in their life.

She reinforced the vision of the school and the Principal for the teachers and emboldened teachers to put that in practice in their classrooms. She rallied up the spirit of the teachers to be futuristic in their teaching approach especially in the current time.

She ended her address by having a dialogue with the teachers and cleared any doubts they may have in their professional life.
