Day/Date- 14th January, 2021

ITL Candyfloss gave one more reason to celebrate as it was the day when we observed Makar Sankranti ,Bihu and Pongal which represents the diverse culture of India. People fly kites on this day and prepare traditional sweets for this festival that marks the arrival of spring. In different parts of the country, this day is celebrated in different ways. In some areas, people exchange sweets and greetings, while others take holy dip in the river. Feast, Music, Kite flying and dance is an intrinsic part of these celebrations. So just to add some more fun for our children ,we organised a game named 'Kite tambola' ,which they enjoyed to the fullest. Also, they were enthralled with a craft activity of 'Kite making' with different vibrant and colourful papers. Children were also dressed up as natives of Assam and TamilNadu representing their states and their harvest festivals
