Excursions

Visit to Super Market

Pre-School

Mom gets groceries at the super market all the time But on this special day the children visited the super market 'MORE' to look around. We learned that the store is divided into different aisles for different kinds of products and produce. It was a fun day which ended with a sweet note of "Kuch Meetha ho jaye" chocolates.

Visit to Iskcon Temple

Pre-Primary

Pre-Primary and Pre-School kids went to Iskcon temple for excursion. The temple was wearing a festive look for the celebration of the birth anniversary of Lord Krishna. The temple was decorated with flowers as a symbol of love and devotion. Sweets were distributed amongst students who sang Krishna Bhajans with great devotion and enthusiasm. Children returned to school with stories of Krishna told to them in the temple.

Excursions

Visit to Airforce Museum

Pre-Primary

Educational visits give students an opportunity to gain first hand experience. It nurtures Progress and innovation. Pre-Primary Children visited Air force museum. It was a Delight for the kids to see a Photographic history of the air force for the early Days to the latest. Beside rockets and Bombs the museum is a storehouse of information for our kids to learn from.

Trip to Jaipur

Class II

School had organized a two Day educational trip to Jaipur for students of Class II. Around 30 students along with Ms. Shama Kapoor Headmistress (Junior Wing), Ms. Kavita Kakar and Ms. Preeti Kapoor visited City museum, zoo, Amber Vatika. The students also attended Block Printing and Blue Pottery workshops at Sanganer. Children enjoyed the hospitality at clarks Amber.

CRAFT

Rakhi Making

Students of Pre-Primary and Pre-School had rakhi making activity to mark the upcoming festival (Raksha Bandhan) that honours the sacred relationship of a brother and sister. Children enthusiastically made colour fulrakhis with colorful papers, satin ribbon and decorations. It was a joy to see their imaginations taking shape.

Independence Day

Showing off their Patriotic Spirit Pre-Primary kids made tri colour Butterflies and felt Proud to Be Indian.

CRAFT

Teachers Day card

Pre-Primary kids made cards for their teachers.

A child-made card can be a very rewarding expression for a teacher. Children's drawings are one of the favorite expressions of their affection. It was a funny idea for teacher's appreciation.

As the name signifies, this activity gave colors to the imaginations of our kids. It was a pleasure to see all our little ones doing wonderful colouring in the picture given to them.

Kitchen Activity

Mojito Making

It's summer time and Mr. Sun is up with his glaring rays. Nothing should quench our thirst as a refreshing glass of Mojito. It's a simple recipe to Beat this heat. All we needed was Sprite, lemon juice and mint leaves. Mixed it well and our refreshing, Cold Mojito was ready.

Laddoo Making

Pre-Primary

Nothing can Beat home made laddoos especially when they are Prepared By our Pre-Primers. They had laddoo making as the months kitchen activity. Little hands made neat laddoos. They tried to roll them into Perfect rounds. Children relished the mouth watering laddoos.

Kitchen Activity

Cake Pudding

Kitchen Activity can be a delicious learning experience for children as well as for teachers. Kids can explore new taste and learn about nutrition. Pre-Primary kids made custard pudding for their kitchen activity. Sponge cake layered with custard. Kids loved the combination of custard and cake. Irresistible dessert made from few simple ingredients made the activity a fun experience.

Sandwich Making

To enhance the culinary skills in our little ones kitchen activity was conducted. Children made sandwiches with simple ingredients like cucumber, tomatoes and the sandwich dressing and the outcome was thoroughly enjoyed by the children.

Fancy Dress Day

We all have our favorite fairy tale and this was the day we got to dress up as our favorite character from the stories. The children felt like they were in a fairy tale land with all the beautiful characters come alive. Our children narrated about the character they depicted with amazing grace.

celebrating Colour

The day began with colorful dresses worn by the children. The children had 'show and tell' of the respective colored objects. They also learned to mix primary color and discovered new colors. At the end of the day the children received smiles for the respective color days.

English Recitation

Recitation activity evaluates the listening and oral skills of our children. Preschool children showcased the rhymes that they learn in the classroom every day. They stood on the stage with confidence dressed as the character of their rhyme and presented their favorite rhyme on the mike with flare.

Pick and Tell

Toys are our favorite playmates of childhood. The children looked forward to share about their favorite toys with their classmate. Some of them got super heroes, some got their dolls, some got fast cars and few got their soft toys. They introduced themselves and spoke few lines about the toys. Most of all they enjoyed sharing and playing with the toys among friends.

Sing Along

Music touches all the emotions of a human soul. It was a wonderful time during the month of Independence, with all such feelings of Patriotism our little Mozarts sang different melodious songs in the pride of our nation. Their symphony touched all the human emotions and had an impact on everyone's soul.

Nanhe Kavi

Reciting rhymes has always been children's delight and if it is in their mother tongue they get all the more excited. The children performed marvelously and got the opportunity to enhance their confidence, vocabulary and rhyming skills through this activity.
