

LIBRARY ACTIVITY

TAFS SR Library organized a skit “Just Another day in the life of Backbenchers and Toppers” by 13 students of class VII-D in the Activity Hall, dated 4th Feb 2020.

The play started with a short speech by Navya and Sachi. There were three scenes. The skit was made interesting by a song and a group dance. The skit was based on a normal day in the classroom. It was very funny with a deep meaning. It showed how, despite the student’s diversity, all the children came together in the end. It also showed a teacher’s importance and love for the class. The moral was “All’s well that ends well”.

The participated students’ names are given below:

- Jiya, Aanya, Atharv and Sarthak as Backbenchers
