

LIBRARY ACTIVITY

TAFS SR Library organized a play “Diary of a young girl” by the students of class VII-A in the Activity Hall, dated 11th Feb 2020.

Diary of a young girl was written by Anne Frank, is a book of writings from the Dutch language. This book is published as a play and a movie also. It has been published in more than sixty languages. Anne and her family perished in German concentration camps. She died off typhoid in that camp. She got a diary on her 13th b'day on 12th July 1942. She called her diary “Secret Annex”.

In the concentration camp many people were tortured very badly and at the end they were all shot by Hitler and his army. Anne was young Jewish girl and Hitler didn't like them, so she was taken to the concentration camps. Otto Frank who was Anne Frank's father was the one who survived from Anne's family. Miep Gies was the one who handed over “Secret Annex” to Anne's Father.....contd/-...
