Report on: Poster Making Competition on Festival of Harvest.

Event Date: 7th January 2022

Theme: “Lohri, Makar Sankranti, Bihu and Pongal Celebrations”

India has always been a land of diverse cultural identities. Every culture has their own festivals which are of great cultural significance. Few such festivals like Lohri, Makar Sankranti, Pongal and Bihu are celebrated in the month of January. Each of them has their own history and significance.

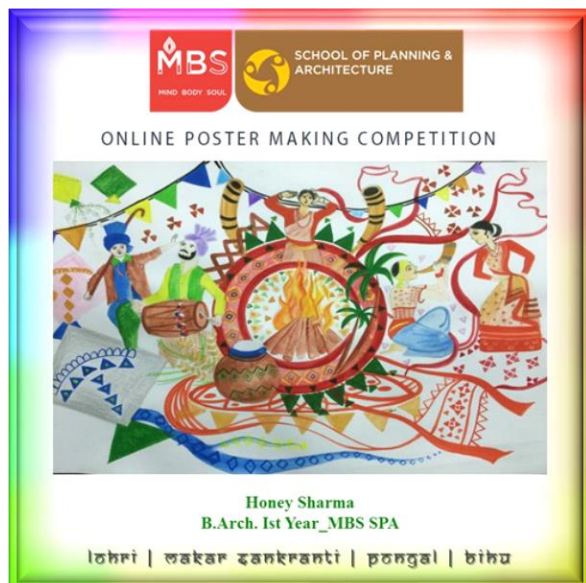

These festivals significantly mark the harvesting season of crops in India as the winter season ends and ushers in the spring.

People enjoy the fruits of good harvest and celebrate these festivals which also underline our organic relationship with nature and the need to preserve our environment. It is not only an example of Indian diversity but also that of unity in diversity of our country. Taking all these facts into consideration the students of MBS SPA got an opportunity to exhibit their creativity by participating in poster making competition organized by MBS SPA on the occasion of Lohri, Makar Sankranti, Pongal and bihu celebration from 13th January to 15th January 2022. The main intention of celebrating these festivals is to welcome spring season and the new harvest as they mark the end of the winter season and give lots of reasons to rejoice, enjoy and have fun.

MBS SPA extracurricular team planned an Online Poster Making Competition under the theme of “Harvest Festivals Celebrations”. Through this competition, Participants are required to send the image of their poster along with a small caption of not more than 20 words. After back-up preparations, floated a competition to all the students of MBS SPA on 7th January 2022. The entries were sent by the students to the extracurricular team till 12th January 2022, at extracurricular@gmail.com.

Students have showcased their creativity & few entries were shortlisted by the team for sending to the panel of judges for the judgment. The result of the competition was declared on 17th January 2022.

MBS SPA received total of 8 entries. List of participants are below
