To increase the enthusiasm and promote the traditional attire among the students and faculty members for the event, awards for best dress and best performances were introduced. The day of bonding, where the gathering, the celebration and the dance etched a unique combination signifying the diversity of Indian culture in students.

The four hours event became a good site of interaction for the faculty and students and all had a gala time. The DJ made sure the visitors glued to the floor all through the evening with traditional dandiya music along with some peppy Bollywood dandiya numbers. Drawing from their mouths, the very familiar phrase: “once more!”. The fun and frolic event of Dandiya commenced with the beats of a garba song. The appetizing eateries completed the essence of the event.

All the students and faculty present there joined in the celebration, tapping to the spectacular music. A strong bond was visualized between teachers and students. It was a huge family tapping their toes with the rejoicing music. The delightful sight of energetic light-footed young boys and girls swirling in graceful rhythmic garba and enthusiastically playing Dandiya evoked admiration among all present there.
