"ZONAL NASA CONVENTION"

Date: 28.11.2019

Resource Person – NASA TEAM

MBS SPA college participated in the 62nd Zonal NASA Convention held in S.P.A., Poornima University, Jaipur from 20th- 23rd October 2019. A total of 41 delegates went to attend the convention.

The NASA conventions are the platforms for the interaction of architecture students of different colleges. It also aims to help in exploring the technical & creative side of the architecture students. It challenges students by introducing design competitions for which students put their sincere efforts under faculties guidance to compete with other colleges.

Our students participated in ZNDC (Zonal Nasa Design Competition), Best thesis, Reubens Trophy, Journalism & Dance Trophy. They also attended and participated in various workshops & seminars held in the convention agora to enhance their knowledge and skills and experience the competitiveness & awareness of the field among themselves.

Students participated in Landscape Projections, Artnet, GRIHA, Lighting Design, Unbound Art, Designing with Phi, Doodle Ashram, Spatial Soundscape, My design, My right, Confab and [Un]Plan workshops.
