

MBS SCHOOL OF PLANNING AND ARCHITECTURE

SECTOR – 9, DWARKA, NEW DELHI

GGSIU University

REPORT ON

"LOHRI CELEBRATION"

Date: 13th January' 2020

Time: 3:30 PM

Venue: Construction yard

Details of the event:

All the students and faculty members were invited for the Lohri celebration with the following invitation.

Lohri is celebrated on the night before Makar Sankranti. It is considered to be the coldest night of the year. The festival of harvest is related with Sun, Earth and Fire, which are worshiped with bonfire and praying to god by putting first set of harvest in this bonfire. To celebrate this beautiful festival, all the faculty members and students assembled in the construction yard.

MBS SCHOOL OF PLANNING AND ARCHITECTURE

SECTOR – 9, DWARKA, NEW DELHI

GGSIU University

The celebration of festival of Lohri began with wishing everyone happy Lohri. Then a bonfire was lighted by Director MBSSPA Prof. Bijay Dash and President of MBSSPA, along with students of MBSSPA. All the teachers, students and administrative staff gathered around the bonfire and wished happy Lohri to each other.

As Lohri is considered as New year for farmers and marked as day of harvest, popcorn and peanuts were distributed to everyone, of which some were fed to the fire, as part of tradition and then were eaten by all. The event was then concluded by wishing Lohri to each other.

REPORT BY:

Ar. Rajshree Mathur

(Assistant Professor)

MBSSPA

New Delhi