

INTER – HOUSE DEBATE COMPETITION (6th October 2017)

As a part of International School Award (2017-18) activity, Sadhu Vaswani International School for Girls organized an inter – house debate competition for senior classes VI – XII.

The School has set the benchmark for conducting activities in such a way that the students not only enjoy but also learn a great deal from it. With the same perspective in view, the school organised a debate competition. The topic of the debate was- ‘Is Xenophobia An Extreme Form of Nationalism?’

The representatives of the various houses spoke vehemently on the issue and came up with their perspective regarding the same. They cited reasons and supported them with suitable examples from current happenings in the world to justify their stand.

The judges for the day, Mrs. Varsha Arya (T.G.T English at Sant Brahwan Sr. Secondary School, Karol Bagh) and Mrs. Santosh Vyas (Vice-Principal, Sadhu Vaswani International School for Girls) were deeply engrossed in the ideas of the students. They appreciated the answers given by the debaters during the interjection round.

They adjudged the Kriti Sharma of Yamuna house as the best debater and Sindhu House as the best house in debate competition. Speaking on the occasion Mrs. Varsha Arya praised the school for organizing such enriching events and choosing such an issue which is globally viable.

The students of VI to XII were an audience to the show, thoroughly enjoyed the event.
