

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

DPS Maruti Kunj, Gurgaon held its 24th Investiture Ceremony on 24 July 2019. In a solemn ceremony, the oath was administered to the Student Council Members and the House Appointees. Realising, the inspiration that members of the school alumni can instill in students, the school alumnus Dr. Charu Dutt Arora attended the function as the Chief Guest and the Guest of Honour was Ms. Bhavishya, an Environmentalist.

Dr. Charu Dutt Arora is currently working as Medical Superintendent at Millennium Cancer Centre in Gurgaon. He has been a proud student of DPS MK from 1995-2008. Dr. Charu Dutt Arora always upheld the ethos of the school and the school is proud of his achievements.

Ms. Bhavishya is the founder of Rootskills, Co-founder of Rootsaps and Shashakt. She works for women empowerment and children welfare.

The ceremony began with a prayer song by the school choir and the ceremonial lighting of the lamp. Students also presented colourful dances which left everyone mesmerized. Their scintillating performances were applauded by the dignitaries and the parents of the appointees.

Principal Mr. Akhilesh Chaturvedi addressed the gathering and motivated the students to shoulder their responsibilities with sincerity and dedication. In his speech he urged the students not to sit on their laurels but to aspire for greater heights.

Also present on the occasion were Ms. Ritu Malik (Vice- Principal), Mr. Vinod Papreja (Headmaster) & Ms. Rashma Saxena (In-charge Primary Wing).

The members of the student council were conferred with the badges by the revered guests. The students pledged to perform their duties with sincere commitment and prove themselves to be worthy of the trust reposed in them. The Chief Guest Dr. Charu Dutt Arora motivated the students with his inspirational words. The nostalgic speech took everyone down the memory lane as he shared his experiences as a student in Delhi Public School Maruti Kunj. He congratulated the students, and urged them to be role models for others. The Head Boy Snehil Kashyap and the Head Girl Jashan Jyot shared their feelings. The vote of thanks was proposed by the Vice -Principal Ms. Ritu Malik. The ceremony concluded with the National Anthem.