Morning assembly is an integral part of the school's schedule which serves as a platform to develop self -confidence and enables students to acquire knowledge. At the same time it develops their creativity and aesthetic sense.

The students of Grade XII B had organised an educative assembly on the topic “Preserve the Heritage, Promote the Future” on 18 April 2023. The assembly began with an auspicious note chanting Gayatri Mantra followed by the School song.

The thought and speech of the day encapsulated the message to safeguard and protect our heritage-

“The heritage of the past is the seed that brings forth the harvest of future”

The assembly concluded with the National Anthem awakening patriotism among all the students.
