- express ideas and thoughts creatively.

"Fill your paper with the breathings of your heart." ~ William Wordsworth

MBS International school organized the activity 'Creative Writing' for class X as a part of Entity Club Activity to make students express their ideas and thoughts creatively.

The students of grade X enthusiastically took part in the activity as they penned their thoughts in admiration and gratefulness for goodness around them. The activity provided students the opportunity to express gratitude for everyday blessings they receive in life. It was delightful to witness students participating with confidence and alacrity and enhanced their writing skills.
