“Your mind is a powerful thing. When you start to filter it with positive thoughts, your life will start to change.” –Gautam Buddha

Buddha Purnima memorializes and celebrates the birth of Lord Buddha and his enlightenment. To reminisce Gautama Buddha’s teaching, a Special Assembly was conducted by the students of MBS International School on 4 May 2023. Divyanshi Kothiyal and Krishna Tanwar led the assembly which commenced with holy Gaytri Mantra and school song. The students from junior and senior wing presented a Sinhalese song depicting nine principles of Lord Buddha & Bhajan ecstatically. Thought of the day was shared by Aaradhya Kaushik. News Headlines were read by Yuvish Bartwal, Nakul Dhondiyal, Tanaya, Reyansh Chuafla. A marvelous Role Play on ‘Buddha and Path of Happiness’ was enacted by the students of senior wing which was followed by a spectacular dance performance on song Dhamma Chakra Parivartan. The occasion was celebrated with religious fervour and gaiety. The School Principal Mr. Atul Wadhawan addressed the assembly guiding the students to promote values such as compassion, mindfulness and peaceful coexistence. The assembly concluded with the national anthem.
