

GANDHI JAYANTI

To commemorate the birth anniversary of the father of the nation, ITL Public School, observed Gandhi Jayanti in its premises.

In order to apprise the students about the ideologies of Gandhiji an assembly was conducted which included poem recitation on the life of Gandhiji. The students narrated a story on the principles of Gandhiji, that pronounce him as one of the universal icons of Modern India. The poetic sculpture of 11 Indian people known as Dandi March Statue or 'Gyarah Murti' was also emphasized. Further, various activities were conducted where students of class VI created pamphlets on cleanliness. Promoting the spirit of Swadesi, students of class VII participated in 'Vocal for Local', while class VIII, reminiscing in the memory of Charkha, put down the Gandhian ideologies, on the model of the same.

Students of IX & X made a promise to Bapu, penning down their thoughts and placing their assurances on 'The Tree of Promises'.

For the ultimate dream of Gandhiji's, the whole school took the Swachhata Pledge.

Cleanliness is next to Godliness, and to spread this message of the Mahatma, the students of all classes participated in Shramdaan activities. Chanting the slogans on swachhata, the students of classes XI and XII marched in the residential areas around the school campus and cleaned the streets to spread awareness amongst the people. Students of classes VI to X embarked on the mission to clean their own classrooms and also the school premises. The younger ones from classes III to V were motivated to take care of their personal hygiene. The students participated in these activities whole- heartedly.
