Dear Parents,

Greetings!

As you all know Half-Yearly exams are in progress, therefore, we have to positively guide and encourage our children to ensure that their stress is managed well. Kindly counsel them and ensure they eat and sleep well. Positive and stress-free environment at home is essential for mental well-being of students during the examinations.

Kindly note that some cases of the use of 'unfair means' have been reported in the ongoing Half-Yearly exams. Strict disciplinary action will be taken if a child is caught using unfair means in any exam. As per the school policy, it will lead to deduction in total marks. According to the CBSE rules, a child may also be debarred from appearing in all exams if he/she is found indulging in any such activity.
