"Today a reader, tomorrow a leader" - Margaret Fuller

Dear Parents,

Greetings!

Reading is one of the important skills a child needs to acquire to gain proficiency in any language. This raises the need to expose our children to good and interesting reading material. For this the newspapers have been, and will always remain one of the best options. Newspapers not only inculcate the habit of reading amongst students but also keeps them updated with latest information in today's fast paced world.

Therefore, to encourage the students to read newspaper, the school in partnership with the Hindustan Times will provide the HT Students Edition at a special rate of Rs 425/- for 9 months to students.

Besides, this subscription also entitles the subscribers to facilities like participating in inter school competitions, Art and Craft workshops, Excursions, Robotics etc.

Should you want your child to subscribe for this newspaper, kindly submit your consent, by May 18, 2023 through the Google form for which the link has been provided below, consequent to which a sum of Rs 425 will be added to the next month's fee.
