7.	Description of the activity	ITL Public School celebrated the festival of light, Diwali on Thursday, 9th November 2023 in its premises. The ambience was beautifully lit up and adorned with decorations. The program started with the lighting of the lamp by honourable principal ma'am Dr. Sudha Acharya, which was followed by the prayer to the Almighty to invoke blessings for all and sweets were distributed which marked the onset of the festivity. An enthralling dance presentation was put up by the school's conservancy staff followed by shloka chanting, which gave them an opportunity to express themselves in varied ways while also enabling them to relish in the mood of the day. Thereafter, the gift distribution ceremony was organised by the Wellness Club, where the entire school came together to spread the joy of festivity and make it a memorable day for the conservancy staff of the school, the preparation for which had started almost a month before with children coming together and preparing the hampers. Respected principal ma'am handed over the gifts to everybody, as a token of love and appreciation. Teachers along with the other staff of ITL were served lunch later on. The day concluded with beautiful pictures, heartfelt memories and the zeal of festivity. Hope this Diwali brings in goodness and the spirit to overcome evil with good.
