SCERT Delhi organized a National Conference on 'The Power of Entrepreneurial Education: Developing Youth Mindset for Innovation and Economic Growth.' Ms. Atishi, the Hon'ble Minister of Education GNCTD, was the Chief Guest. This conference brought together educators, students and professionals to explore the significance of entrepreneurial education in shaping the mindset of youth for innovation and economic growth.

The sessions were strategically designed to focus on key aspects of education, emphasizing innovation, which is crucial for economic growth. The resource persons shed substantial light on exploring new opportunities, utilizing digital tools, nurturing innovative ideas, and navigating the stages of value creation.

The workshop provided a comprehensive understanding, aiming to catalyse entrepreneurial transformation in education. The conference offered a platform to learn about best practices across the nation, share knowledge, and promote an entrepreneurial mindset. It inspired students to explore their entrepreneurial ambitions at the nascent stage. This Conference was a valuable step towards promoting entrepreneurial education and its potential to contribute to both individual and economic growth. The focus on innovation, collaboration, and knowledge sharing creates a promising groundwork for future initiatives in this domain.
