

The books that look at the world through the eyes of a child are amongst the most enjoyable. “Beyond The Golden Clouds” is a compendium of poems written by a young author, Manleen Kaur. Tons of entertaining poems are classified into four sections i.e Nature, Wisdom, People and Fun.

The author has poetically illustrated different wonders of nature. Her imaginations are humorous, at times serious but always sincere and original. Her thoughts will help you connect with your innermost soul and your true being with an innocent unbiased outlook. The poems rhyme beautifully and each of them has its own precious story.

This book appeals to all kinds of tastes in poetry and is a perfect read for people across all ages.

Flip through the pages to unveil the colors of her imagination.
