

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows

- J.K. Rowling

Summary of the Book → This book has a lot of suspense and mystery. This book tells us about that after Dumbledore died, Harry was being targeted by Lord Voldemort. Because he wanted to kill Harry as he has defeated Voldemort in the past six years. Harry was starting to feel fair in his war and he felt that Voldemort might kill him. Harry was being protected in all way. When the battle began, Harry himself goes to Voldemort, so that he can kill Harry. The last house out of seven ~~was~~ which they had to destroy was in Nagini, Voldemort's pet snake. Voldemort kill Harry, but he doesn't die, he just looks unconscious, but everyone thought he was ~~had~~ dead. Then we read that the last house is destroyed and Voldemort is defeated once and for all. Thus, the battle ends.

What I liked about the book → This book is really well written & good. It has a lot of suspense and backstory of the characters in the book. It has all the interesting facts about the Harry Potter characters. This book has a good use of imagery.

Library Activity - Book Review

Summary of the book ⇒ This book is suspenseful, thrilling & a bit of horror. This book tells about an unsolved truth of a woman who was killed on the flower bed at the night of someone's party. As soon they discover about it in the morning it turned out that the reason "he" killed her was because she ~~made~~ made fun of his drawing which resulted in her death an unfortunate death as it was discovered the woman's name was "Lillian Dyson" and the one who killed her was "Fortin". "Fortin" was a beginner in painting, at the museum everyone said the painting really nice but.. Lillian never knew he was a beginner she said "You lack of details and your painting doesn't show any emotion" while Fortin was telling this between listening he told them Lillian's words while counting with fingers as every word he tells.

I really liked how book had suspense and thrillers. The story written by Louise Penny are good.
