They Both Die At The End

- Adam Silvera

Summary -

On 5th September, Death - Last calls Mateo Torres and Rufus Emeterio to give them the news that they are going to die. Mateo and Rufus don't know each other but they meet each other on their end day. ~~The~~ Through a app ~~is~~ called last friend. They spend their last day together and make memories.

Why do I like this book -

This book made me cry. The story of friendship of Mateo and Rufus was wonderful. Even though they were going to die they made memories instead of being sad and crying.

Think and Grow Rich (Book Review)

→ Why do I like this book

Except of this book on internet first I searched about it I got to know a short story that there was a rich person who called Napoleon Hill and set up agreement that he will take interview of maximum no. of rich and successful peoples and write a book on the common points but he will (rich person) will only pay for on the expenses on these interviews no extra amount Napoleon agreed and they framed the book.

→ Book review

This is a fantastic book it tells us some habits to become rich but the main thing is it tells us about the power of thinking and imagining it tells us how powerful our mind our thinking power is I refer a one more this type of book "that is the power of our subconscious mind" this too now about the book it is very practical that the most or best thing I liked about it I prefer you read it once
