

ASSEMBLY REPORT

CLASS: IX E

TOPIC: HOPE AND COURAGE

The assembly on the theme of hope and courage was presented by class IX E students on May 11, 2023. The assembly was designed to encourage students to pursue their dreams and face challenges with optimism and resilience. The assembly commenced with a prayer read by the Principal, where students were asked to reflect and seek guidance and strength in their journey towards hope and courage.

The school choir performed a song "I Have a Dream" which left everyone feeling inspired and motivated. The song served as a powerful reminder of the impact of our dreams and the importance of nurturing hope.

Following the choir's performance, the audience was engrossed in a thought-provoking message and an enchanting story about the importance of tenacity in pursuing one's dream and instilling hope in others. Furthermore, the assembly also included a recitation of a captivating poem "The Life of Pi" which echoed the theme of courage and faith.

The assembly reached its crescendo with a melodious piece played on the violin. The musical piece "If You Missed the Train I Am On" underscored the notion that even when we face setbacks, there is always a new opportunity waiting for us.

The Principal appreciated the efforts of the students and motivated them to embrace new possibilities, nurture hope and conquer challenges with determination and grit.

The assembly left an indelible impression on everyone present, serving as a powerful reminder of the importance of hope and courage in navigating life's challenges. It provided students with a platform to reflect on their aspirations. The stories and performances shared by their peers left them feeling inspired and energized. The assembly culminated with the national anthem.
