

Delhi Public School Maruti Kunj

Career Counselling Workshop

The school organised a career counselling session for the students of class xi and xii. The workshops were separately organised for science , commerce and humanities students. The students were made aware about various career options and above all they were motivated to choose a career on the basis of their calibre and aptitude than any pressure or fancy. The workshop was addressed by E MANGO COMMUNICATIONS.

