

DPS Maruti Kunj
MADAD - Social Service Club
Report

Delhi Public School Maruti Kunj initiated its Social Service Club, MADAD, with an impactful community outreach. Students across all classes actively participated, showcasing the spirit of generosity.

Donations:

- Rice: 150 kg
- Flour: 200 kg
- Sugar: 150 kg
- Pulses: 200 kg
- Blankets, woolen shawls, and garments

Charity from Home:

The altruistic initiative began at home, with children selflessly contributing from their own households. Families rallied together, reinforcing the importance of collective responsibility.

Widespread Distribution:

Beneficiaries ranged from maids and conductors to sweepers, ensuring a broad and inclusive impact within the local community.

Pocket Money Contributions:

Demonstrating their commitment, students willingly sacrificed their pocket money, underscoring a profound sense of empathy and social responsibility.

DPS Maruti Kunj's MADAD Social Service Club not only made substantial contributions but also fostered a culture of compassion and selflessness among its students. The ripple effect of this charitable endeavor is likely to leave a lasting positive impact on both the givers and receivers.
